Dear Dr. Lederberg:

Thank you for having sent Dr. Inoki's paper. I am sorry to have to say that it does not appear to be suitable for publication in its present form. I shall write him to this effect. Should I return the manuscript to him, or do you think he would want to have you send it to another journal?

Thank you also for the note concerning Buchner's valuable book on endosymbiosis. I do think it would be a worthwhile project to have an abridged version published in English. This might well attract students who would never go to the German text.

Yours sincerely,

William Trager
